CancelApply NowCheck EligibilityWest BengalAmar Fasal Amar GolaDetailsThe West Bengal Government had announced a pilot project to provide financial assistance to marginal farmers of the State so that they can have their own storehouses and vending carts. A subsidy varying between Rs. 5,000 and Rs. 25,000 will be provided for the warehouses. Though there are 24 lakh small and marginal farmers in the State, only around 10,000 such farmers would be covered initially under two schemes. Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee has named the schemes as Amar Fasal, Amar Gola (My Crop, My Storehouse) and Amar Fasal Amar Gari (My crop, my vehicle). In the case of the AmarFasal Amar Gari project, the rate of subsidy would be Rs. 10,000 flat. This project will facilitate those farmers who wish to directly sell their products to end users. The subsidies would be directly credited to the bank accounts of those farmers who own Kisan Credit Cards. BenefitsThe â¬Amar Fasal Amar Golaâ¬ scheme in West Bengal is aimed at providing financial assistance to farmers to help them purchase seeds, fertilizers, and other inputs needed for agriculture. The benefits of this scheme can be expected to include:ï¿½Improved crop quality: By providing farmers with access to high-quality seeds and fertilizers, the scheme may help improve the quality of their crops, leading to better yields and higher income.ï¿½Increased agricultural productivity: The scheme may help farmers increase the productivity of their land by providing them with the resources they need to maintain and improve it.ï¿½Reduced financial burden: By providing financial assistance to farmers, the scheme may help reduce the financial burden associated with purchasing seeds, fertilizers, and other inputs, making it easier for them to invest in their farms.ï¿½Increased profitability: By improving the quality and yield of their crops, farmers who participate in the scheme may be able to increase their profitability, which could lead to
